

NNEPA 2022 (50th ANNIVERSARY) PROGRAM (UNH)¹

The undergrad and faculty/grad sessions will take place in Hamilton Smith Hall. Unless otherwise stated, “a” sessions (e.g. 3a) will be in room 140, and “b” sessions (e.g. 3b) will be in room 150. The only exception is that the 1a session Friday at 12:30 will be in room G34 (ground floor). The Friday evening Reception, Dinner, and Keynote Address will be in Holloway Commons’ Squamscott Room (where Saturday’s lunch and business meeting will also take place). The Saturday morning Plenary Session will be held in Hamilton Smith Hall, 210. (There will be signage directing you internally and externally.)

FRIDAY Oct 21st:

Check-In: 8:00-5:00. (Hamilton Smith Hall Atrium)

8am CONTINENTAL BREAKFAST

8:30-11:00 Undergrads Session (Hamilton Smith Hall 108)

Lauren Ashwell, Chairing

Pico Banerjee: Fictional Subordination

Tom Fleming: Is Audi’s Theory of Justification Justified?

Qifan Hu: A Kantian Amendment to Kuhn’s Theory of Scientific Revolution

Kylee Rock: Peter Singer and Richard Miller on Famine Relief

Andre Provencal: What Ought a Virus Do?

Lunch Break (Holloway Commons has a cafeteria with many food choices)

12:30-1:50 [80 mins] Note Exception: Session 1a will take place in Room G34 (not room 140).

Session 1a. Jonathan Westphal: Elements of the Philosophy of “Right”

Timm Triplett: Duties of Beneficence and the Question of Punishment: Gert vs. Audi

Chairing: Peter Marton

Session 1b. Nick Smith: Apologies and Cancel Culture: A Case of Moral Reconciliation in the Art World?

Lauren Ashwell: Gendered Slurs and the Assumption of Neutrality

Chairing: Catherine Elgin

COFFEE/TEA/SNACKS

2:00-3:20 [80 mins]

Session 2a. Louis deRosset: Abstraction and Ground

Robby Finley: Disagreement About Logic: Using Foundational Debates to Reconsider Theory
Choice in Logic

Chairing: Sam Elgin

¹ We are very grateful for funding for this event from the UNH Center for the Humanities and the UNH Philosophy Department, and for support from preplanning forward from Kevin Sousa and Dean Michelle Dillon in the UNH College of Liberal Arts, and from the team at the UNH-Conferences and Catering.

Session 4b. Hao Hong: An (Adequate, Loyal, and Systematic) Account of the Dao in Daodejing
Peter Li: Liberalism, Confucianism, and Constitutionalism in South Korea
Chairing: Joseph Forte

12:30-1:50 NNEPA LUNCH followed by Business Meeting (Squamscott Room, Holloway Commons)

2:00-2:40 [40 mins; Talk by a NNEPA Originator]

Session 5a Bob Scharff: Technology as Applied Science: A Stubborn Myth
Chairing: Paul McNamara

COFFEE/TEA/SNACKS

2:50-4:10 [80 mins]

Session 6a. Sam Elgin: The Triviality of the Identity of Indiscernibles
Carl Sachs: From Behavior to Meaning
Chairing: Bill deVries

Session 6b. Gordon Purves: Practical Problems with Environmental Pragmatism
Josh Tepley: Is Sartre's Concept of Being-for-Itself Self-Contradictory?
Chairing: Maria Brinker

4:20-5:40 [80 mins]

Session 7a. Laura Santer: Punishment in Plato's Protagoras: The Transformative Power of Shame in the Education of Virtue
Joseph Forte: Hope in Time: Plato and Dennett in Dialogue
Chairing: Ned Markosian

Session 7b. Whitley Kaufman: How to Argue Against Free Will Skepticism
Austin McGrath: The Relation between Alienation and Identification
Chairing: Greg Fahy