HUMANITIES
SPRING
BUDAPEST
PROGRAM
Who is it for?

The program is open to all students (UNH and non-UNH), providing they have met the following requirements:

- Must have declared a major
- Minimum 2.5 cumulative GPA
- Must have completed at least 32 credits*
- Must have a clean conduct record (or have satisfied any disciplinary sanctions)
Early-bird Application Deadline:  April 21, 2015
Final Application Deadline:  October 2015

Program dates spring 2016:
Arrival: January 17-18, 2016
Departure: May 12, 2016
WHERE DO WE STUDY?

Corvinus University of Budapest

- One of the most prestigious Hungarian universities
- Urban setting – center of Budapest
- Situated along the Danube River
- Classes of just UNH students
WHERE DO WE LIVE?
The Flats
71 Podmaniczky Utca

3 bedrooms
The Flats, cont’d
3 Benczur utca
5 bedrooms
A = Flat 1   B = Flat 2   C = Corvinus University
FACULTY & CLASSES

HUMA 550: Marx and His Critics in Eastern Europe
(4 credits)
_Nick Smith, UNH On-Site Faculty Director_

HUMA 551: Field Studies in Art and Culture
(6 credits) _Fine and Performing Arts Discovery_
_Nick Smith, UNH On-Site Faculty Director_

COLA 657A: Culture of Hungary and Central Europe in the 20th Century
(3 credits) _Humanities Discovery_
_Laszlo Varadi, Corvinus Faculty_

COLA 657B: Hungarian History: 1848 to Present
(3 credits) _Historical Perspectives Discovery_
_Agnes Beretzky, Corvinus Faculty_

16 credits total, study abroad fulfills _World Cultures Discovery_
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th>Semester in Budapest</th>
<th>Semester in Durham</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>UNH Tuition (16 credits)</td>
<td>$6,835 in-state  $13,325 out-of state</td>
<td>$6,835 in-state  $13,325 out-of state</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Program Fee</td>
<td>$3,770</td>
<td>$3,230 (double room)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>UNH Mandatory Fees</td>
<td>$444</td>
<td>$1,441</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Meals</td>
<td>$1,500 (estimated by students)</td>
<td>$1,950 (UNH’s least expensive meal plan)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Total Cost</td>
<td>$12,549 in-state  $19,039 out-of-state</td>
<td>$13,456 in-state  $19,946 out-of-state</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Program fee covers housing, phone, and all course-related excursions
Students responsible for own meals and personal travel expenses

These are estimates based on 2014-15 tuition & fees. Spring 2016 tuition & fees may be higher.
FINANCIAL AID AND SCHOLARSHIPS

Scholarships
• Trout Scholarship (for NH resident COLA majors; contact: COLA Center for Study Abroad in Murkland)
• CIE Scholarships (contact: Center for International Education in Hood House)
• Foundation for Global Scholars & Gilman Scholarship (contact: Office of National Fellowships in Hood House)

Financial Aid
• UNH allows federal, state, and institutional aid (except Work/Study) to transfer for all UNH-managed study abroad programs
• Financial Aid Office will adjust your budget to reflect your new program costs as outlined by the program
• Your Financial Aid will credit your account as it normally would
• If you have any questions or concerns, you should make an appointment with Cynthia Mills in the UNH Financial Aid Office at 862-3600
HOW TO APPLY

www.cola.unh.edu/budapest-humanities
CONTACT US

• Nick Smith, UNH On-Site Faculty Director & Professor of Philosophy
  – 30 Hamilton Smith Hall
  – (603) 862-1329
  – nick.smith@unh.edu

• Stephen Trzaskoma, On-Campus Faculty Director & Professor of Classics
  – 306 Murkland Hall
  – (603) 862-3648
  – s.trzaskoma@unh.edu

• Lisa Mulvey, Study Abroad Coordinator, COLA-managed programs
  – COLA Center for Study Abroad, 116 Murkland Hall
  – (603) 862-3962
  – lisa.mulvey@unh.edu