Outstanding Graduate Student Paper Award Review Rubric

Category | Description | Rating | Comments
--- | --- | --- | ---
Theoretical Framework | The paper is guided by a clear conceptual framework, described in the context of existing research, and includes references to relevant prior work on the topic. | 1-lowest 5-highest |
Choice of Question/Problem | The main question or problem of the paper is stated clearly, related to current research, and offers the potential for new insights in the field. | 1-lowest 5-highest |
Methodology | The author has chosen an appropriate method for examining the question or problem, has explained this methodology clearly, and rigorously applied it. | 1-lowest 5-highest |
Quality of Writing/Analysis | The paper is clearly written and well organized; the author’s position is clearly articulated and well reasoned; the paper is properly formatted and conforms to standards of usage. | 1-lowest 5-highest |
Contribution to the Field | The paper offers an original contribution to knowledge in the field (conceptual/theoretical development, empirical findings, policy development, etc.). | 1-lowest 5-highest |
Overall Recommendation | | | |