Alum Creates Career Assistance Program
For Theatre And Dance Majors

For Immediate Release
February 4, 2014 Durham, NH-

R.E.A.C.H. (Real Employment And Career Help) is a new program designed to provide financial assistance for both current and recently graduated UNH Theatre & Dance students who participate in internships with highly regarded theatre or dance organizations. The program is funded by Ellis Woodward, UNH Class of ‘74.

The internship criteria are based on the professional level of the company; the artistic value and scale of the productions the company produces; the company’s ability to guide and help the student in professional development and their ability to bridge professional connections for the student.

The student qualifications demand that the student be a Theatre and Dance major with a minimum of 2.5 academic GPA, and a minimum of 3.0 Theatre/Dance GPA. The student must demonstrate a consistent history of department production involvement, a level of discipline and integrity, as evidenced in departmental undertakings, and a commitment and dedication to a career in theatre and/or dance.

Current students and recent graduates still have time to apply for awards. For summer 2014 R.E.A.C.H. awards, all paperwork is due March 20, 2014.
