Meet Aurélien Mokoko Gampiot, a visiting doctoral researcher!

Dr. Aurélien Mokoko Gampiot is a WS Visiting Research Scholar this semester. He holds a doctorate in Sociology and is currently a postdoctoral scholar at the French National Research Center on Religions and Secularism of the École Pratique des Hautes Études in Paris (GSRL-CNRS-EPHE) hosted at Sorbonne University. He is currently conducting doctoral research at UNH on the Black Jewish Diaspora with a focus on Black Jewish women in the Boston area. Through his research he strives to answer questions that intersect race, gender, religion and American society. He shared with us that he “could not but feel honored to join the Department of Women's Studies of the University of New Hampshire to carry out this research.” Welcome to the university, Aurélien, and best of luck in your research!

Discussion and Lunch w/ Dr. Aurélien Mokoko Gampiot:
Discussion on contemporary world, African diaspora, identity, race, etc.

Wednesday Nov. 7 @ The Waysmeet Center, 11-1pm

Other Upcoming Events

Gender Identity Awareness (GIA) Week: Various events / dialogues about gender identity/expression, gender diversity, social justice and cultural transformation. November 12-16

Women’s Studies Meet & Greet: Thursday Nov. 29 12:40-2pm, WS Office

Resume & Cover Letter Workshop: Tuesday Dec. 4 12-2pm, WS Office