JANUARY, 1988

UNH WOMEN'S STUDIES NEWSLETTER
307A Dimond Library - 862-2194

************

COMING EVENTS

You should be receiving a fuller newsletter soon, but we wanted to inform you of women's events that are taking place right away this semester.

JANUARY 25 - SOUTH AFRICA AWARENESS WEEK
JANUARY 28 (For full schedule, see posters on campus)

Mon. Jan. 25 6PM Candlelight March  T-Hall
Wed. Jan. 27 Women and Resistance in South Africa
11-12 Film: You Have Struck Rock
(Senate-Merrimack Room, MUB)
12-1 Film: Forget Not Our Sisters
(Senate-Merrimack Room, MUB)
2-4 Gloria Strickland, Co-chair, U.S.-
Congo Friendship Committee
(Senate-Merrimack Room, MUB)

FEBRUARY 4 - BAG LUNCH SERIES - THURSDAYS 12:30 - 2, MUB
FEBRUARY 25

Feb. 4 Lenora Fulani, Independent candidate for President in 1988 election (Year of the President Series), Strafford Room, MUB

In 1986, Dr. Fulani ran for Governor of New York, the first Black woman to have done so. She is a developmental psychologist who practices in Harlem and is national chair of the Women of Color Caucus of the New Alliance Party.

Feb. 11 Mary Ellen Foley, Sisters of Mercy and Oscar Chacon, New England coordinator of Going Home (for Salvadoran refugees),
"Central America Update: El Salvador and Nicaragua,"
Feb. 18  Film:  "Lorraine Hansberry: The Black Experience in the Creation of Drama,"
Hillsboro-Sullivan Room

Feb. 25  Cathryn Adamsky, Associate Professor of Women's Studies, will discuss her observations of women in Japan, India, Russia and other countries she visited as part of Semester-at-Sea.
Hillsboro-Sullivan Room

Feb. 29-  WOMEN'S HISTORY PROGRAM, "Women in the March 4  21st Century" Schedules will be available soon.

April 4-  Heidi Hartmann, political economist and author of books and articles on pay equity, comparable worth, and Marxist-feminist theory.
April 5