published by the Women's Studies Organization for the Women's Studies Program at the University of New Hampshire Coordinator for 94/95: Nancy Lukens
Faculty: Barbara White
   Cathryn Adamsky, on leave
Office Goddess: Diane Strong
Instructors: Phyllis Abell, Vicki Banyard, Ann
Driscoll, Linda Foulsham, Cindy Garthwaite, Patricia Gianotti, Carol Keyes, Penelope Morrow,
Mary Moynihan

Women's Studies
304A Dimond Library
Office: 862.2194
Instructors: 862.4721

Teaching Assistants:
Sarah Boylan,
Darlene Cardoza

Work Study Students:
Kerrie Faia, Jess Poole,
Tracy Shea

ANNOUNCEMENTS

SHARPP fundraiser! Have your dry cleaning receipts validated from Great Bay Cleaners (Jenkins Court, Durham) between now and May 15 and they will donate 20% to SHARPP. Turn in slips to Sylvia Bruder at SHARPP (862.3494).

"On the Road to Equality" students: Are you interested in helping to coordinate/participate in the Seneca Falls Slide Show on Friday March 24 during noon hour? The show is part of Women's Herstory Celebration and will be a great opportunity to share our trip and class with the community. Please call Jane at 862.3494. For more info see celebration poster.

OCCUPIES FOR EXPERIENCE

Are you interested in being a Teaching Assistant for a Women's Studies class? The application deadline is Monday, March 27. Applications available -where does? - in the Women's Studies Office.

The Women-Helping-Women project is a community-based health initiative which aims to create a more holistic and sustained approach to provision of services to women in the seacoast area. Volunteer and Internship opportunities exist in the following areas: creation of a comprehensive referral system, design and implementation of an outreach/education program and development of a volunteer/buddy system. For more info contact Ruth Rosenhek at 436.0815

New Hampshire Peace Action is looking for new members to join our Media Dialogue program. Participants agree to write two letters per year to the editors of NH newspapers on issues selected by NH Peace Action. We provide fact sheets, sample letters and writing tips for your use. Together we can use our voices to educate and to be a constructive part of solutions of peace and lasting security.
Contact Becky Venne at 603.228.0559 or send inquiries to: Media Dialogue Project, NH Peace Action
PO Box 771, Concord, NH, 03302.

AMERICORE has a p/t position available immediately-august 25.
Applicants can work at any crisis center in NH, like Sexual Assault Support Services in Portsmouth. Hourly wage + stipend.
Contact Kimberly Firth or Sheila Capone with Americorps at 603.229.3460
WHAT'S GOING ON—ON CAMPUS

JANUARY 17  Registration begins for UNH Rec Sports classes including aquasize, swimming and women's weight training. March 27-
May 5. Also: American Red Cross classes including lifeguard, water safety, and CPR/first aid. To register or for more info:
Mon-Fri from 8-4, rm 151 Field House or call 862.2031

MARCH 21  Women's Studies Program Book Sale! From 9-4 in the Forum Room, level C in Dimond Library. Clearance of donated books and the former WSRL. Support our Program!

MARCH 28  Open House for Women's Studies Students interested in hearing about WS 797-Internship in Women's Studies. Mary Moynihan, WS Internship Coordinator will be on hand to answer questions along with currently enrolled students who will share their intern experiences. 7:30-8:30 in the WS office.

MARCH 20-25  See next page for more details on Women's Herstory 109 Week 1995!!!

APRIL 24  Women's Studies Curriculum Fair. Short presentation on cross-listing your course for Women's Studies and social hour. More info in April newsletter. Alumni Room/New Hampshire Hall. 3:00-5:00.

WHAT'S GOING ON—OFF CAMPUS

MARCH 11  International Women's Day Festival. Speakers, Performers, and an international food bazaar. 11:30-4:30 at the First Congregational Church, Mason St. Entrance, 11 Garden Street, Cambridge, MA. (Harvard Square T-stop). Sponsored by the Northeast Regional Office of Amnesty International. Contact the office at 617.623.0202 or Maggie Zordeo at 603.862.7947 for more info.

MARCH 11  Second annual Feminist Fun Night featuring Kate Rushin, poet, humorist and lecturer, and Yagottawanna. 7:00 social hour, 8:00 performance begins. Tickets $10-30 (sliding scale) send check and SASE to NH Feminist connection, PO box 311, concord NH 03302. No tickets available at the door. Call 225.3501 for more info. Hurry, selling out fast!

MARCH 30-31  New Hampshire Women in Higher Education Association presents "Challenges, Choices and Changes" a conference at the New England Center at UNH. Deadline for reservations is March 15-available in the WS office or contact NHWHEA c/o Donna Anderson-Yarrington, Springfield College, 500 Commercial Street, Manchester, NH, 03101.

APRIL 2  Anne Marie Kenney, local artist will speak on "Industrial Quilting: Craft, Art, and Modern Female Expression". Part of Women Artists class at UNH-Manchester. At the Currier Gallery of Art in Manchester at 2:00. Call John Lambertson for more info at 626.0631.

APRIL 9  Rally for Women's Lives "We Won't Go Back": In Washington DC.. Join the National Organization for Women for a massive action against violence. Also: the first national display of the clothesline project. To volunteer or more info call 202.331.0066. BUSES FROM DURHAM are being organized now! (Leaving late April 8, returning early April 10) Partially subsidized so cost to participants will be reasonable. Contact Betsey Andrews at 868.6483 or Lianne Meisner at 749.0447.
March 1,2,3. "Quilting 109" join traveling quilting bee and create a square.
Various locations: call the Hot line x2083

March 8, Networking Breakfast Hear Peggy Vagts, Associate Professor Music Department UNH tell us about Amy Beach, composer 19th Century in the MUB Eatery, 8 a.m. reservations necessary 862-1058

March 20: "Elder Voices, oral presentation and photo exhibit of Black New Hampshire Yankees, with Valerie Cunningham, Hood House 3 pm. Photos of Kelvin Edwards on exhibit all day at Hood House.

March 21, "Marilla Ricker Birthday Readings" 10 am to 2 pm. Forum Room, Library, sign up to read by calling Women's Studies x2194.

March 21, All day Book Sale, Forum Room. 9 am to 4 pm. Pick up your bargains.

March 21, "Weaving in the Women" critical discussion about women and the English curriculum. Led by author/educators Liz Whaley and Liz Dodge. Entertainment Center, MUB, 7:30 pm co-sponsored by the Alliance.

March 22, "Women's Sexuality Workshop" Let's talk about "it" from a women's perspective. Ham Smith 126. 11:30 to 1pm Led by Becky White, Health Ed and Promotion.

March 22, "It Had to be Done So I Did It!" by and with Judith Moyer and cast, Murkland 110, 7:30 pm. co-sponsored by the NH Humanities Council.

March 23, "Women in Science Poster Exhibit" exhibit 9 to 4. Authors present from 1 to 3. Morse Hall Atrium, March 23, “Sallie Watkins, professor emerita Physics, University of Southern Colorado, Keynote Speaker” on the life and controversial scientific work of nuclear physicist Lise Meitner, co-founder of Element 109 on the periodic Table., 7:30 pm Iddles Hall, Parsons Hall. Reception to follow.

March 24, “Slides from Seneca Falls” documenting a trip to NY State to the Women’s Hall of Fame by WS 595 “On the Road to Equality”: noon to 1:30 Place TBA

March 24, “Take Back the Night” March and Vigil, Murkland Courtyard. 6:30 to 9:30. Banners being created 4:30 to 6:30. Room TBA.

March 25, Fourth Annual “Women's Spirituality Day” a celebration: What does the Goddess mean for women's lives Today? Elliott Alumni Center, 1925 Room., Registration 12:30, program 1 to 5 pm. Come complete our circle.

March 30, Annual Women's Commission Awards Celebration, honoring the work of UNH women. Morse Hall Atrium, 3 pm Come one come all. Celebrate with us. Refreshments!
GRADUATING MINORS: TURN IN YOUR INTENT TO MINOR FORM NOW! The deadline to file intent to graduate forms is March 31 WITH a $25 late fee.

Don't Forget: Pre-Registration will start April 12. Look for class descriptions in the next issue of the newsletter!

SUMMER SCHOOL OFFERING:
WS 595-Women's Spirituality will be available this summer if there is enough interest. "This course will be both theory and practice, an experiential and creative process as well as learning through the written word. We will experience different spiritual practices and healing ceremonies. The ongoing project will be the creation of your own stories using journals, dreams, poetry, collage, music and movement, with a presentation. We will hear from an inspiring range of leaders, teachers, practitioners and healers."
Please join us!
With Penelope Morrow
WS 595 Session I
T/TH 8:00-12:00 in Kendall 202

WSO NEWS

The Thursday meeting time we had last semester isn't working for a lot of members, this semester. Right now we are scheduling meetings as needed. The next WSO meeting will be MONDAY, MARCH 20 at 2:00 in the Stafford Room Lounge. All Women's Studies majors, minors and those interested in supporting the Women's Studies Program are welcome. Non-seniors interested with keeping WSO going next year and continuing our projects (and starting new ones!) are especially encouraged to hook up with us.

Women's Studies Students who have gone abroad with an academic program, taught as a TA, or participated in a volunteer or internship program: Are you interested in sharing your story? Your tales of joy, adventure and woe may encourage (or warn) other students to broaden their horizons and seek out more diversified university experiences. Narratives of modest length may be submitted on disk, paper or e-mail for inclusion in future editions of the newsletter. Please include your name, major/minor, class, program name, and a phone number. Sharing is a great part of the Women's Studies world!

As always, if you have events, thots, concerns, queries, projects or daydreaming on disk that might be interesting to the women's studies community, leave it in the WSO/newsletter box or e-mail: EGK@CHRISTA.UNH.EDU

Many great submissions. Keep them coming! Deadline (and really mean it) for the April edition is MONDAY, MARCH 27.
Volunteers needed for the Women's Studies Program Booksale on Monday March 21 from 9:00 - 4:00 in the Forum Room, level C, Dimond Library.

8-9 (set-up)
9-10 hour or hours available to help out with the sale
10-11 Please circle
11-12
12-1
1-2
2-3
3-4
4-7 (clean-up)

Name: ____________________________
Phone: ____________________________

Drop this sheet off at Women's Studies or call Tracy Shea at 802-2194!
MARCH 24, 1995
6:30 - 9:30
MURKLAND COURTYARD

Speakers, Performers, Open Microphone,
Banner Contest with prizes donated by local businesses,
Candle Lighting Ceremony, and March
Childcare will be available in Murkland room 21

Come make a banner with us!
Materials will be available in Hamilton Smith room 126
4:30 - 6:30

Are you interested in speaking or performing?
Contact Darlene at 868-3679 or leave a message with SHARPP at 862-3494