The Fifteenth International Conference

on

Social Stress Research

Conference Director  Heather A. Turner  Professor of Sociology
                                      University of New Hampshire

Conference Co-Director  Catherine L. Moran  Senior Lecturer of Sociology
                                                      University of New Hampshire

Conference Co-Director  Karen T. Van Gundy  Associate Professor of Sociology
                                                        University of New Hampshire
Conference Program

The Fifteenth International Conference on Social Stress Research

Renaissance San Diego Hotel, San Diego, CA

June 4-6, 2016

Saturday, June 4

8:00- 9:00 a.m. REGISTRATION

9:00 – 9:10 a.m. OPENING REMARKS
Heather A. Turner, University of New Hampshire

9:15 – 10:15 a.m. KEYNOTE SPEAKER
Debra Umberson, University of Texas at Austin

10:30 – 12:00 p.m. SESSION A: Sexual Orientation, Identity, and Stress
Room: Industry 1-2

“The Role of Respect in Minority Stress Processes: The Case of Same-Sex Couples,” Allen LeBlanc, San Francisco State University, David M. Frost, University of Surrey, Bernd Simon, Kiel University, and Kayla Bowen, San Francisco State University

“LGB Parental Stress,” Richard Wight, University of California, Los Angeles

“Depressive Symptoms among Heterosexual-Identified Young Adults Endorsing Prior Same-Sex Behavior: The Mediating Role of Perceived Stress,” Evan A. Krueger, University of California, Los Angeles, and Dawn M. Upchurch, University of California, Los Angeles
10:30 – 12:00 p.m.
SESSIOIN B: Neighborhood and Community Contexts
Room: Industry 3

“Examining Neighborhood Environment as a Mediator of the SES-Health Relationship: A Longitudinal Analysis,” Madison Leia, University of Washington

“Neighborhood Stressors and Mental Health and Well-Being among U.S. Adults,” Georgiana Bostean, Chapman University, and Christopher Bader, Chapman University

“Patterns of Unhealthy Alcohol Use, Stress, and Mental Health among Latino Day Laborers,” India J. Ornelas, University of Washington, Vanessa T. Torres, University of Washington, and Samantha E. Serrano, University of Washington

12:00 – 1:30 p.m.
LUNCH BREAK

1:30- 3:00 p.m.
SESSION C: Personal Resources and Coping
Room: Industry 1-2

“Race, Major Depression, and Emotional Reliance: Implications for the Black-White Mental Health Paradox,” Chrisy L. Erving, University of Wisconsin-Madison, and Courtney S. Thomas, University of Kentucky

“The Role of Stigma Visibility in Shaping Exposure to Social Stressors, Coping, and Health: The Case of Gay Men and Lesbian Women,” Michael J. Doane, University of Nevada, Reno, and Marta Elliot, University of Nevada, Reno
1:30-3:00 p.m.
SESSION D: Work-Related Stress and Perceived Pay Inequality
Room: Industry 3

“Under-Rewarded Boss: Gender, Workplace Power, and the Distress of Perceived Pay Inequity,” Scott Schieman, University of Toronto, and Atsushi Narisada, University of Toronto

“Palatable Unjust Desserts: How Procedural Justice Weakens the Pain of Perceived Pay Inequity,” Atsushi Narisada, University of Toronto

“Work Stress and the Prospective Incidence of Depression: A Study of Police Officers,” John Violanti, University at Buffalo, State University of New York, A. Mnatsakanova, NIOSH, M.E. Andrew, NIOSH, T.A. Hartley, NIOSH, and C.M. Burchfiel, NIOSH

“‘Yourself or Someone Like You’—Social Comparison in the Scope of Effort-Reward Imbalance,” Eva-Ellen Weiss, Heinrich Heine University

3:15- 4:30 p.m.
SESSION E: Linking Social Policy and Stress
Room: Industry 1-2

“The Buffering Role of the Welfare State on SES Differences in Depression: How Social Policy Matters,” Matt Parbst, University of Toronto

“Living a Deportation Threat: Stressors and the Mental Health Implications for Undocumented Mexican Immigrant Women,” San Juanita Garcia, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill

“How Immigration Policies Impact the Stress and Mental Health of DACA-Eligible Latina/o Young Adults,” Roberto Gonzales, Harvard University, Veronica Terriquez, University of California, Santa Cruz, San Juanita Garcia, University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill and Kristina Brant, Harvard University

3:15- 4:30 p.m.
SESSION F: Mass Victimization and Trauma
Room: Industry 3

“Trauma and Contagion: The Spread of Stress after Mass Violence,” Nicole Fox, University of New Hampshire
“Remembering Genocide: The Effects of Early Life Trauma on Reminiscence Functions among Israeli Holocaust Survivors,” David King, Simon Fraser University, Phillipe Cappeliez, University of Ottawa, Sara Carmel, Ben-Gurion University of the Nagev, Yaacov G. Bachner, Ben-Gurion University of the Nagev, and Norm O’Rourke, Ben-Gurion University of the Negev

“Collective Victimization Trajectories during the Period of the Wars in Ex-Yugoslavia and Well-Being,” Dario Spini, University of Lausanne, and Rachel Fasel, LIVES

Conference Reception 5:00-7:00 p.m.

Sunday, June 5

9:00- 10:30 a.m. SESSION G: Biological linkages in the Stress Process
Room: Industry 1-2

“Validity and Biomarkers—Connections between Stressors and Allostatic Load in the Texas City Stress and Health Study,” M. Kristen Peek, University of Texas Medical Branch, Rob Buschmann, University of Texas Medical Branch, Miriam Mutambudzi, and John Prochaska, University of Texas Medical Branch

“Do Psychological Stress and Recent Stressors Mediate the Relationship between Neighborhood Quality and Allostatic Load? Evidence from the Texas City Stress and Health Study,” Rob Buschmann, University of Texas Medical Branch, M. Kristen Peek, University of Texas Medical Branch, and John Prochaska, University of Texas Medical Branch

“Social Position and Telomere Length,” Michael J. McFarland, Florida State University, John Taylor, Florida State University, and Katherine Friedman, Vanderbilt University

“Growing Up and Wearing Down: How Early-Life Disadvantage and Work-Life Circumstances are Associated with Stress-Related Immunity Dysfunction among Young Adult Women,” Adam M. Lippert, University of Colorado Denver, Sarah Damaske, Pennsylvania State University, and Lisa Berkman, Harvard University

9:00- 10:30 a.m. SESSION H: Stress Processes among Individuals with Chronic Disease and Disorder
Room: Industry 3

“‘Nobody Wants to Feel Different’…but it’s Just the Way it is:’ Experiences of Stigma and Other Stressors among Young People with Psoriasis,” Alex Parkhouse, Assumption College

“Social Support and Cancer Survivorship,” Kanetha Wilson, Vanderbilt University

“Cancer Survivors Reflect on Stress and Coping through their Cancer Journey,” Boaz Kahana, Cleveland State, Eva Kahana, Case Western Reserve University, Baruch Kahana, Marshfield Clinic Wisconsin, Alicia Smith-Tran, Case Western Reserve University, and Kaitlyn Barnes Lagendoerfer, Case Western Reserve University

“Stress Perception in Persons with Chronic Brain Injury: An Exploration of the Moderating Effects of a Community-Based Program,” Barbara Prudhomme White, University of New Hampshire

10:45 - 12:00 p.m. SESSION I: Stress Processes across Life Domains

Room: Industry 1-2

“Level of Economic Development of the Country of Origin and Work-to-Family Conflict after Migration to Canada,” Shirin Montazer, Wayne State University, and Marisa Young, McMaster University

“Testing a Causal Model of Job Insecurity, Negative Work to Family Spillover of Stress, and Quality of Life,” Anne E. Fehrenbacher, University of California, Los Angeles

“Contested Domains, Parental Stress and Resentments and Intimate Partner Violence among Young Adult Mothers,” Sue P. Nash, Bowling Green State University, Monica A. Longmore, Bowling Green State University, Peggy C. Giordano, Bowling Green State University, and Wendy D. Manning, Bowling Green State University

10:45-12:00 p.m. SESSION J: Discrimination, Religion and Anger

Room: Industry 3

“Do Religious Struggles Mediate the Associations between Day-to-Day Discrimination and Depressive Symptoms?” Terrence Hill, University of Arizona, C. Andre Christie-Mizell, Vanderbilt University, Preeti Vaghela, Florida State University, Krysia N. Mossakowski, University of Hawai’i at Manoa, and Robert J. Johnson, University of Miami

“Perceived Discrimination and Maladaptive Expressions of Anger among Older Adults: Does Subjective Social Power Buffer the Association?” Yeonjung Lee, University of Calgary, and Alex Bierman, University of Calgary

12:00 – 1:30 p.m. LUNCH BREAK

1:30- 3:00 p.m. SESSION K: Race and Discrimination

Room: Industry 1-2

“Dealing with the Ambiguity: The Significance of Ambiguous Discrimination Stress for the Mental Health of Black Americans,” Courtney S. Thomas, University of Kentucky

“Discrimination-Related Anger, Religiousness, and Distress: Ethnic and Immigrant Variations among Black Americans,” Rachel N. Head, University of Texas at Tyler, and Maxine Seaborn Thompson, North Carolina State University

“Perceived Skin Tone and Skin Tone Discrimination among African Americans: Evidence from the National Survey of American Life,” Ryon J. Cobb, University of Southern California

“Race Differences in the Association between Socioeconomic Status and Depressive Symptoms: Discrimination Associated with Status Attainment,” Carol Aneshensel, University of California, Los Angeles, Karra Greenberg, University of California, Los Angeles, and Ucbechi A. Mitchell, University of Southern California

1:30- 3:00 p.m. SESSION L: Stress in Educational and Occupational Contexts

Room: Industry 3

“Prestige and Well-Being in the Legal Profession,” Jonathan Koltai, University of Toronto, Scott Schieman, University of Toronto, and Ronit Dinovitzer, University of Toronto

“Majoring in Engineering and Women’s Well-Being: Strategies that Increase Sense of Belonging in the Face of Micro-Aggressions,” Dara
Elizabeth Naphan, University of Nevada, Reno, and Marta Elliot, University of Nevada, Reno

“‘Do or Say Anything Helpful?’ An Analysis of Social Support and Collegiate Athletics,” Sarah J. Hatteberg, The College of Charleston

“Stress, Eustress, and the National Student Survey,” Chris Gibbons, Queen’s University Belfast

3:15- 4:45 p.m.  SESSION K: M: Mastery and Social Relationships
Room: Industry 1-2

“How Well Does Mastery Buffer the Effects of Stressors on Distress?” Michael K. Hughes, Virginia Tech, K. Jill Keicolt, Virginia Tech, and Verna M. Keith, Texas A&M University

“The Gender Gap in Mastery: The Role of Employment Status and Educational Achievements in Shaping Cohort Differences,” Andreea Mogosanu, University of Toronto

“Socioeconomic Status and Mastery: Implications for Racial Disparities in Depressive Symptoms,” Amanda Bunting, University of Kentucky, and Courtney S. Thomas, University of Kentucky

“Black Women, Obesity, and Social Relationships,” Kanetha Wilson, Vanderbilt University and Raeshell Sweeting, Vanderbilt University

3:15-4:45 p.m.  SESSION N: Youth and Life-Course Patterns of Emotional and Behavioral Health
Room: Industry 3

“Enduring Impact of Childhood Stressors on Adult Health: Testing Psychological and Behavioral Pathways,” Tracy Keirns, University of New Hampshire

“Cumulative Stress, Gender, and Differential Response: A Survival Analysis,” Donald A. Lloyd, University of Southern California

“Associations of Family Residency and Child-Parent Relations with Alcohol Consumption among Adolescents in Sweden,” Curt Hagquist, Karlstad University

“The Role of Parental Substance Use in Time to Developing a Substance Use Disorder by Race and Gender,” Jenna van Draanen, University of Monday, June 6

8:30-9:45 a.m.  Session O: Physical Health, Mortality, and the Stress Process
Room: Industry 1-2

“Stress and Diabetes among American Indian Adults: First Results from a Longitudinal Study,” Melissa L. Walls, University of Minnesota Medical School-Duluth, Benjamin Aronson, University of Minnesota College of Pharmacy, Duluth, and Jessica H.L. Elm, University of Washington

“The Role of the Stress Process in the Risk of Mortality,” Blair Wheaton, University of Toronto

10:00-11:15 a.m.  SESSION P: Race and Ethnic Variations in the Stress Process
Room: Industry 1-2

“Differences between Blacks and Whites in the Relationship between Stress Exposure and Substance Use from Adolescence to Early Adulthood,” Kevin Haggerty, University of Washington, Martie Skinner, University of Washington, and Richard Catalano, University of Washington

“The Black-White Paradox Revisited: Mental Disorder among Black and White Adolescents,” Patricia Louie, University of Toronto, and Blair Wheaton, University of Toronto

“Racial and Ethnic Contrasts in Relationship Status, Parenthood, and Mastery during the Transition to Adulthood,” André C. Christie-Mizell, Vanderbilt University, Benjamin D. Tyndall, Vanderbilt University, Brittany N. Hearne, Vanderbilt University, Ashleigh R. Hope, Vanderbilt University, and Tyson H. Brown, Vanderbilt University

11:30 – 12:30 p.m.  KEYNOTE SPEAKER
William Vega, University of Southern California
12:30-12:40 p.m.    CLOSING REMARKS
Heather A. Turner, University of New Hampshire