Future Leaders Institute 2015
STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT AND COMMITMENT
(Please review and attest that both you and your parent/guardian have reviewed)

The Future Leaders Institute (FLI) seeks to establish a positive, caring environment in which students may thrive and grow. This requires that each person acknowledge and respect the needs and rights of others in the FLI community. With this in mind, a code of conduct has been established to provide the norms of expected behavior within the program. All students are required to conduct themselves in compliance with these standards.

1. a) Students are not to possess or be under the influence of alcohol, marijuana, or other non-medical drugs at any time while at UNH.
   b) Students are not to engage in any sexual activity.
   c) Students must not steal.
   d) Students must not possess fireworks, firearms, knives or weapons of any kind.

2. Students are expected to behave at all times in a manner that reflects respect and consideration for each other, for the staff, for the program, for the University, its property and personnel, and for themselves. Use appropriate language at all times, this includes but is not limited to, no swearing, derogatory or threatening words.

3. Students are expected to participate fully in all scheduled program activities, both during the day and at night. Students are expected to put forth their best effort in every activity.

4. We ask that students keep their residence hall room doors unlocked during free time to ensure that all policies are being followed and for student safety. Doors may be locked a curfew when students are sleeping. All residence halls are locked at all times for safety precautions.

5. Students are to remain on campus during the program period unless special arrangements are made in advance with the administrative staff to temporarily leave campus. Any arrangements to leave campus must have written approval of a parent/guardian.

6. Students may ride only in vehicles with FLI staff during program period. Students may ride with parents or guardians during visiting times or for travel between home and UNH. Hitchhiking is prohibited. Sitting in parked cars with non-program individuals is prohibited.

7. Students outside the dorm area (e.g. library in evenings, evening seminars, etc.) during evening personal time are to be accompanied by at least one other student or staff person.
8. Visitors and friends are allowed only in the lounges while in the dorm during normal hours. Family members may visit a student's room when accompanied from the downstairs lounge by that student. Non-family members are not allowed to visit a student's room.

9. Do not permit non-program participants to have access to dormitories or other facilities, direct them to program staff for assistance. Immediately notify program staff of any non-program person(s) attempting to access dorms or facilities or who are present in dorms or facilities.

10. Immediately notify program staff of any accidents or injuries, no matter how minor.

11. Students will follow all guidelines of FLI housing staff, which will be reviewed upon your arrival.

12. Students are expected to maintain a positive attitude about their involvement in FLI and are responsible for sustaining a positive learning environment for themselves and others.

13. Students may use the campus libraries and other facilities, but are responsible for any fees due to loss or damage to materials and facilities.

Consequences for Violations of Guidelines

Persons who violate 1a, 1b, 1c or 1d will be subject to dismissal from the program after the first offense without exception. Violation of other guidelines will result in a wide range of consequences up to and including dismissal or police action. Fees will not be refunded in case of dismissal.

I/we have read the above guidelines and policies and agree to comply with them.
