5-week online course
runs summer term 1 2016 (May 23 - June 24), no set daily meeting times, open to all majors

Register for GEOG 796/GSS 896: Crowdsource Mapping

Learn about one of the most important trends in the use of mapping to manage large-scale emergencies—collecting and compiling information from a crowd of volunteers during natural disasters, epidemics, and civil unrest.

open to juniors, seniors, and grad students  |  no pre-reqs or prior experience necessary  |  of special interest to majors in geography, justice studies, sociology, anthropology, computer and information sciences, engineering, business, forestry, environmental sciences, and more!

Need more info?
Contact Joel Hartter, joel.hartter@colorado.edu or Shane Bradt, shane.bradt@unh.edu