In Summer 2013, UNH presented an online enrichment course entitled Reading, Writing and Storytelling with Harry Potter. The course was structured around English Language Arts curriculum for grades 4-8, and enrolled students from around the world.

Prof. James Krasner, who created the course, will share what he learned about developing online lessons and using Harry Potter to teach English Language Arts skills.

DISCUSSION TOPICS WILL INCLUDE:

Using Harry Potter to create lessons – opportunities and pitfalls.

Using fan fiction to improve literacy.

Lateral, tangential and interdisciplinary learning.

Online teaching strategies.

Online assessment.

The digital brain.

Please Register by emailing james.krasner@unh.edu