

Application for Political Science 695/6 Independent Study

Applicants must gain the support of the appropriate faculty sponsor, who will review, comment, and sign off on the application. Applicants must then submit the complete application and all supporting materials to Marcie Anderson in the Political Science Department by the first day of the pre-registration period prior to the semester the independent study will be undertaken. Late applications will only be considered under special circumstances. Students must provide to the faculty sponsor all documentation.

All students desiring to undertake an independent study must:

- be a junior or senior political science major;
- have a minimum GPA of 3.2 and be in good academic standing;
- have fulfilled the 400-level requirement and taken at least one upper level course in the subfield appropriate for their independent study;
- must provide a current UNH academic transcript (unofficial is accepted)

Students cannot register for Polt 695/6 until they receive Undergraduate Committee approval. Polt 695/6 does not count toward any of the major's four subfield course requirements. Only one graded internship and/or independent study can be counted toward major requirements.
