

UNH Education Department Grad Student Development and Research Funds 2017-18

(non-department awards are based on previous years; please check with appropriate office regarding this year's award)

Graduate Student Funding			Successful funding requests often include: 1.) evidence of a fiscally responsible budget (evidence of ways to contain/reduce costs e.g., sharing a room or transportation with a colleague, and combines multiple funding sources) 2.) Application to the Graduate School as a first source of funding.
Award Name	Source	Due Date	Description
Graduate Student Professional Development	Education Department	October 2, 2017 February 2, 2018	To support graduate student presentations and attendance at regional and national professional conferences. Available funds (determined annually) awarded in November and February of each year, and will be distributed according to the following ordered priorities: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> PhD students presenting at regional/national conferences MEd students presenting at regional/national conferences Graduate students attending regional/national conferences
Small Research Project Funds Amount: maximum $500	Education Department	October 31, 2017 and February 1, 2018	(1) Possible uses: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. data collection, input, transcription, or other procedures conducted prior to analysis b. materials related to research project c. travel to collect data for research project d. attendance at training or workshop to learn research methods for use in a specific research project (e.g. dissertation or thesis) Not intended for purchase of computer hardware or software (unless required by or included in above a training), travel to conferences, or other professional development opportunities
Travel Grants $200	Graduate School		The Graduate School awards travel grants to students who are presenting their research and scholarship at professional meetings or to students attending professional development workshops and seminars that will enhance their research agendas. http://www.gradschool.unh.edu/php/travel_grant.php .