UNH PEP Video Recording Consent

Many teachers of the UNH's Piano Extension Program (PEP) are currently completing a pedagogical course in UNH's undergraduate/graduate program. As such, they are required to submit video samples of their teaching to demonstrate progress and methods used as partial fulfillment for their course work.

The video will only be viewed by Dr. Tu, director of PEP and professor for the pedagogical course, and by teachers for evaluation purposes. It will also be made available to the student being recorded, upon request, on the terms that it will not be shared or published in any form and viewed only by the student and his/her immediate family. In most cases, only a small percentage of a teacher's teaching – in both private and group classes – will be recorded, and whether or not a lesson or class is being recorded does not in any way reflect upon the quality of the student or the teaching.

Consent to video recording is NOT required. Please indicate your consent or non-consent within the online registration. If you consent, you are doing so to this statement:

I grant the PEP the permission to video record my child's or my (if the student is age 18 or over) piano lessons and group-class participation and use the recordings in the manner described above. This consent remains in effect for the duration of the current term.

UNH Youth Program Photo Release

I hereby grant the University of New Hampshire, their successors and assigns (collectively referred to as "UNH"), irrevocable permission to record and use my child's name and image, visual likeness, portrait, photograph, and voice (collectively referred to as "likeness") in all forms and media, including but not limited to publications, catalogs, brochures, websites, magazines, exhibitions, videos, digital media, social media such as Facebook, Twitter and Instagram, or any other media, for the purpose of education, marketing, advertising, communication, public relations, publicity, training or any other lawful purpose.

I hereby waive any right to payment, compensation or royalties arising out of or related to the use of my child's likeness or creative works by UNH. I hereby release UNH and their trustees, officers, directors, agents and employees, from any and all liability or legal claim that may arise from the acts that I have authorized or consented to herein.

Consent to the use of photos as stated above is NOT required. Please indicate your consent or non-consent within the online registration.
