The Rutman Distinguished Lecture Series on the American Presidency

New York Times
White House
Correspondent
Maggie Haberman is one of the most influential voices in national affairs journalism today. Her experience covering Donald Trump for years when he was a fixture in the New York headlines and her Pulitzer Prize-winning reporting on possible Russian involvement in the 2016 election give her unparalleled insights into the mind of the president.

The Rutman Distinguished Lecture Series on the American Presidency is generously supported by J. Morgan '84 and Tara Rutman. The lecture series focuses on American political history with an emphasis on the modern and historical context of the American Presidency.
