DEGREE OPTIONS

Russian, B.A.

Russian is the most widely spoken of the Slavic languages and is the most geographically widespread language of Eurasia. To study Russian is to be introduced to one of the world's great literatures and cultures. You'll study the Russian language and its history, reading important works of 19th and 20th century literature. You'll also explore Russian contemporary society and culture. Many students in the Russian program pursue a double or dual major in areas such as business administration or international affairs. Your studies in Russian will take place both inside and outside the classroom at UNH. You'll spend a summer or semester studying in Russia, and also will have opportunities for internships. You'll be able to interact and work closely with faculty.
