Application for Public Humanities Project Seed Funding (up to $5,000)

I. COVER SHEET

Name:

Institution and Department:

Financial office (in charge of processing grants) at your institution:

Contact name: Email: Phone:

II. PROJECT NARRATIVE – not to exceed two pages and to address the following questions:

- What is your project?
- Who are you collaborating with and what is the status of their commitments? (Please include student involvement in the project, if relevant, and academic collaborators, as well as community partners)
- What is the project work plan and timeline—what do you hope to get done and (roughly) when?

III. BUDGET – not to exceed one page (We recommend a very basic format, e.g. below. If helpful for clarity, please feel free to provide a couple of sentences of budget narrative after the breakdown. This is not required.) Your grant-processing office will let you know how they want you to track and submit documentation of expenditures and what is/is not eligible. Please note that F&A cannot be covered by this grant.

Student researcher stipend	$700
Printing and publicity costs	$450
Venue rental	$1200
Travel (mileage)	$400
Website construction/maintenance	$750
Community Partner Stipend	$1500

Faculty who are including undergraduates who are also SIPH alumni may apply for an extra $3,000/student, to be represented in the budget as:

"Student Support Funds for work on project: Student Name, SIPH 2022"

Please note that you need to be university-affiliated in order to receive seed funding. You are welcome to contact us with any questions about eligibility.

Please email your entire application – as one PDF file – to humanities.center@unh.edu no later than 5 pm August 1, 2022. You will be asked for brief quarterly updates via email throughout the year and a final report after the funding period end date (June 30, 2023)

CENTER FOR THE HUMANITIES
UNIVERSITY OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

University of
New Hampshire

Mellon
Foundation

NE
HC